Tourism Bureau launches mobile web site

St. Robert, MO
June 29, 2010

Pulaski County Tourism Bureau and Visitors Center unveils its mobile phone website today. The address is pcinmo.mobi. Mobile phone users can search, browse and read selected text content found on www.VisitPulaskiCounty.org.

The mobile web site enables users access to read and get mapping information on tourism related topics such as things to do, places to stay, dining, night life, shopping and personal services, events, and transportation in Pulaski County. A searchable county wide calendar of events is also accessible from the mobile site.

“The mobile phone web site makes it easy for travelers and guests of Pulaski County, as well as locals, to be advised of the latest information regarding tourism related items of interest,” says Beth Wiles, Executive Director of Pulaski County Tourism Bureau in St. Robert. “ We look forward to feedback from the community and our tourists to find out more about how people use their mobile devices to find and read local area information.”

Pulaski County Tourism Bureau is a non-profit organization with the mission of developing and advancing tourism and travel in Pulaski County in a manner which will compliment the commercial, industrial and civic interests of the county.
