

Stanley Cour-tel Motel

Originally located along Route 66 in Saint Louis Missouri, the property was razed for expansion of Lambert Air Field. Signs were rescued by Friends of the Mother Road and in 2004 they were transported to Henry's Rabbit Ranch in Staunton, Illinois. September 2017 they were donated to PCR66P for the Route 66 Neon Park development by Friends of the Mother Road. Both signs pictured have been rescued.

Size:

Stanley Motel-----7' high x 12' wide x 10" thick

Stanley Office-----13' high x 12" wide with 2'20" extensions for arrow x 9" thick

We are seeking a sign sponsorship for restoration of the neon and electrical components, protect the porcelain frame, pole and installation. Sponsorship includes recognition on storyboard and marketing collateral.
