

Dine in a Cave, Richland Missouri

A real restaurant in a real cave! Yes, Pulaski County offers a one of a kind dining experience! Just south of Richland , MO, off Highway 7 (Just 30 minutes from Camdenton/Lake of the Ozarkspatrons will find this unique, hidden dining treasure. After parking in the large central lot, step aboard the shuttle to be transferred to the cave entrance as the driver informs guests about the history of this resort which originally, back in the 1930's which was known as Ozark Springs Resort.

At the entrance, enter an elevator which whisks patrons upward to the dining facility. The menu includes homemade Italian dishes, charbroiled steaks and oven roasted chicken. The stuffed mushroom appetizer and Jack Daniels Bread Pudding are must trys!

Under new ownership in May 2009, Gary Dyer and the staff of Cave Restaurant and Resort offers a experience you will never forget! Dining in a real cave with waterfalls, fish ponds, a beautiful view of the Gasconade River AND delicious food.
